

DARRYL HILL

iOS Engineer

Almost 4 years experience writing object-oriented, readable, clean, maintainable source code. Developed more than 7 apps for iOS devices (4 of which as a solo developer) that are available in the App store. All have boosted revenue, attracted new users or just created fluid and enjoyable user experiences. My focus is UI/UX intense or multimedia driven apps. 🔍 KUMU (featured in the app store), LADCP, EVENTS4REE, MySanity, M-GO, DIRECTV, UPTICK or Spreadsheets.

» WORK EXPERIENCE

JUNE 2014
PRESENT Kumu (Body by Jake)
Sr. iOS Engineer (UI/UX specialist)

Built a featured app for personal wellness coaching that matches users with live personal trainers via video and messaging threads. Responsible for all UI/UX R&D which included an infinitely swipeable horizontal nav. The app used firebase for persistence and core data when offline.

OCT 2012
JUNE 2014 City of Los Angeles
Lead iOS Engineer

Solely responsible for building this app for the department of city planning. Included functional requirements, design and ultimately building it. Built a bar code scanner, expandable table views, dynamic and embedded buttons on cells, JSON parsers and the ASIHTTP framework.

JAN 2010
OCT 2012 DIRECTV
iOS Engineer (prototypes)

Built prototypes for the iPhone and iPad. Worked closely with the design team and high level management to assess feasibility and rollout timeframe. Worked in an agile scrum environment and used git as our software repository.
